

Invitation

The School of Creative Arts and the Cancer Council Queensland present
A Winter Music Compilation at the School of Creative Arts
Outdoor Performance Space
James Cook University, Townsville

Witness the musical talents of a JCU Masters of Music Student and an internationally renowned North American Pianist among many others. Drinks and Nibbles Served.

---

Friday evening 12th June
5pm for 5.30pm start – 7.30pm finish
School of Creative Arts
Outdoor Performance Space

---

Tickets $30 per person – proceeds going to the Cancer Council Queensland. Raffles will also be conducted throughout the night with proceeds again going to Cancer Council Queensland.

---

To RSVP and Purchase tickets please contact Haley at the Cancer Council Queensland (8.30am–5.00pm Monday to Friday)

RSVP: Tuesday 9th June 2009

Phone: 1300 65 65 85 or 4721 1644

Email: townsville@cancerqld.org.au

Address: 24 Warburton Street North Ward Qld 4810

---

Special Guest Performers include

Julia Bowden

Accomplished piano player and current School of Creative Arts masters student, Masters of Music (pictured above)

Richard Auvil

North American Doctoral student in piano accompaniment Studies at University of North Carolina, Exchange in Croatia

Professor Ryan Daniel

Foundation Head of School of Creative Arts at James Cook University with both an extensive and impressive musical background

Captain Nemo

Is a JCU based funk, jazz, rock ensemble, directed by Dr David Salisbury and featuring vocalist Vicki Salisbury with a complement of horns and back up vocals

Guitar Orchestra

An ensemble of talented guitar players creating musical brilliance

Also Featuring Townsville Identity Mr Richard Lane as MC